The screenshot shows the Business Today website interface. At the top, there are navigation links for various editions: Business Today, Aaj Tak, Dallyo, Ichowk, India Today, and Lallantop. The main header reads "BusinessToday.In" with a sub-header "Wednesday, July 28, 2021 | Updated 10:51 IST". A secondary navigation bar includes categories like HOME, ECONOMY, CORPORATE, MARKETS, MONEY, INDUSTRY, TECHNOLOGY, OPINION, and PHOTO. Below this, there's a "News / Jobs" breadcrumb and a "Feedback" button. The main headline is "COVID-19: Hiring freeze to adversely affect job openings for permanent staffers, says survey". A sub-headline states: "Over 57 per cent respondents believe that new job positions for permanent employees will suffer a major impact of the overall hiring freeze, according to a survey by staffing and HR services company Genius Consultants". Below the text is a banner for Hindustan Institute of Technology & Science (HITS), featuring its logo and a list of engineering disciplines: Auto | Bio-Tech | Chemical | Civil | CSE | ECE | EEE | IT | Mechatronics | Mechanical | B Des | B Arch. It also mentions "AICTE APPROVED" and "HITSEEE 2021 Online Entrance Exam" with an "Apply Now" button. At the bottom of the screenshot is a photograph of a group of people, likely students, looking down at something out of frame.

Job openings for permanent staffers at fresher level will be adversely affected due to the overall hiring freeze amid the second wave of COVID-19, while temporary or gig workers seem to be better placed, says a survey. According to a survey by staffing and HR services company Genius Consultants, over 57 per cent respondents believe that new job positions for permanent employees will suffer a major impact of the overall hiring freeze.
