As the economy runs to a comeback path after an intense plunge last year amid the pandemic, a study has exhibited that 59 percent of companies in India plan to give salary increments to their employees in 2021.

According to staffing company Genius Consultants '10th Hiring, Attrition and Compensation Trend 2021-22', the market is expected to be stable with this impressive growth rate. The companies will also relook at their business continuity strategy along with strengthening the workforce.
