“The last two years, with the upheaval of the pandemic, have been nothing short of a roller coaster for the economy, with multiple ups and downs running parallelly with the case counts. Now that we are hoping for some stability, the new Union Budget for 2022 must focus on creating more demand and building employment opportunities across various sectors that have been adversely affected and have witnessed a drastic dip in hiring. The PLI scheme, along with the ‘aatmanirbhar bharat’ initiative, if continued to be promoted and upscaled, can help the manufacturing sector as well as many other industries. The budget should also focus on improving and strengthening the existing medical infrastructure and stabilising the decisions about the policies. Throwing focus on these specific areas could help increase the GDP by 9% for the year 2022 and 8.5% for 2023, respectively and may also curb the fiscal deficit by 4.5% for the year 2025-26.
